MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS
All requests should be made via e-mail to the Sparks Communications Department at least 48 hours PRIOR to the game you wish to cover. NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by Sparks Public Relations prior to arriving at STAPLES Center. Credentials may be picked up at the primary entrance adjacent to 11th street (between Figueroa and Georgia streets) beginning two hours prior to game time. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times and are non-transferrable.

CHICK HEARN PRESS ROOM
The Chick Hearn Press Room is located near the primary media entrance adjacent to 11th street on the Event Level. The stairway from the primary entrance as well as the elevator leads directly to the press room.

PRE AND POST GAME INTERVIEWS
In accordance with WNBA policy, the Sparks and the visitors' locker rooms will be open to members of the media for 30 minutes ending 1 hour before the start of the game (e.g., media access shall be granted from 6:00–6:30 p.m. for a 7:30 p.m. game).

Locker rooms are re-opened to the media after the game following a 10-minute cooling down period and will remain open for 30 minutes. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS OR PERSONAL PHOTOS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS
Game notes, rosters and stats are available in the press room two hours prior to game time. Statistics are distributed to the working media at the conclusion of each quarter as well as first half boxes and final boxes. Post-game notes and quotes are distributed following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Limited space is available for still photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined before game day. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas, and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area. All photographers who are sharing a lane and not on the photo lane during a specific quarter must stay in the Chick Hearn Press Room unless otherwise directed by PR.

MEALS
Beverages and snacks will be available in the Chick Hearn Press Room before and during the game.

TELEPHONE COMPANY CONTACTS
For lines and instruments, please contact Laura Geery, STAPLES Center Telecommunications Manager at (213) 742-7246.

RADIO/TELEVISION
Technical Contact: Spectrum

PRACTICE POLICY
The last 30 minutes of each practice will be open to the media, with players and coaches available for brief interviews. Please contact Eli Horowitz in the Sparks Public Relations Department to confirm practice times, sites and the availability of players and coaches.

OWNERSHIP

EARVIN "MAGIC" JOHNSON

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Having left the basketball court for the boardroom, Earvin "Magic" Johnson has successfully parlayed his skills and tenacity from the court into the business world as Chairman and CEO of Magic Johnson Enterprises (MJE). MJE provides high-quality products and services that focus primarily on ethically diverse and underserved urban communities. With his continued love of basketball, Johnson is utilizing those same skills and bringing his winning spirit in his recent role as the President of Basketball Operations for the Los Angeles Lakers, working closely with ownership throughout all areas of the franchise.

Still a commanding presence in popular culture, Johnson made history in 2012 when he became co-owner of MLB's Los Angeles Dodgers. He also co-owns the Los Angeles Sparks of the WNBA, Major League Soccer's Los Angeles Football Club, and eSports franchise Team Liquid. He continues to expand his influence through his many businesses that include: EquiTrust Life Insurance Company, ASPiRE, an African-American television network and SodexoMAGIC, a food service and facilities management company.

The Lansing native is constantly evolving and remaining relevant in a dynamic digital age by broadening his scope into infrastructure and technology. Through a newly formed fund, Johnson is investing millions of dollars on infrastructure improvement in the United States. He is also one of the leading investors in a number of minority-owned tech companies that include Uncharted Power, a company that uses their renewable kinetic energy solutions to generate clean, consistent, and cost-efficient power for communities, facilities, and the Internet of Things; ShotTracker, a company that makes wearable technology for basketball players that helps track player and ball movement; Jopwell, a diversity and hiring recruiting platform; Walker & Co Brands, a company that develops health and beauty products for people of color; and MiTú, the Latino-fueled media brand and digital network that connects thousands of Latin content creators with viewers around the world.

Johnson, who serves as Chairman and Founder of the Magic Johnson Foundation, also continues his commitment to transform Urban America through HIV/AIDS Awareness and Educational Programs. Remaining true to his humble Lansing beginnings, he is unwaveringly dedicated to working with major corporations and partners to bring jobs and high quality products and services to underserved communities.

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Mr. Walter is the Chairman and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Mr. Walter is also Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board and Executive Committee of Guggenheim Capital, LLC. Mr. Walter serves as a trustee/director of several organizations including the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, Security Benefit Corporation and the EquiTrust Life holding company. He is also a controlling shareholder of Delaware Life Holdings. Mr. Walter grew up in Iowa and received a B.S. from Creighton University and a J.D. from Northwestern University.

TODD BOEHLY

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Todd Boehly is an owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chairman, CEO and controlling shareholder of Eldridge Industries, a private investment firm that operates a portfolio of diversified businesses across several industries. Prior to founding Eldridge, Mr. Boehly was the President of Guggenheim Partners, where he launched their credit investing business and later assumed responsibilities for the asset management business. Mr. Boehly received his B.B.A. from the College of William & Mary and studied at the London School of Economics.

In addition to being the Chairman and CEO of Eldridge, Mr. Boehly is a member of the Cain International Board, and serves as a trustee of several other organizations. He is an owner of the Los Angeles Sparks.

ROBERT L. PATTON, JR.

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Robert L. Patton, Jr. is a partner of Guggenheim Baseball Management. He became part owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. Patton resides in Fort Worth, Texas, where he was born and raised. Patton principally operates oil and gas properties in Texas and Kansas and has additional investments in many other sectors, including ranching and insurance. Patton serves on the Board of Security Benefit Corporation and the Advisory Council of the University of Texas College of Liberal Arts.

Patton received a B.B.A. from the University of Texas as well as a J.D. from St. Mary's University and LLM from Southern Methodist University.

OWNERSHIP

STAN KASTEN

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Stan Kasten became president and CEO of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. For more than three decades, Kasten has been a highly-respected sports figure and has developed a reputation for creating winning sports franchises.

In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously. He accomplished this unique feat with Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves, the National Basketball Association's Atlanta Hawks and the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers. Kasten's professional career is highlighted by the Braves' 1995 World Championship. During his tenure, the Braves and Hawks made a combined 30 post-season appearances and claimed 15 division titles, including 12 in a row in the Braves' unprecedented run from 1991-2003. He was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career, including NBA committees on marketing, player pensions and expansion and the NBA Board of Governors, MLB's owners negotiating committee and chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee, and the NHL's Board of Governors and its executive committee. He is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Throughout his impressive sports career, Kasten has relied on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field. In 1979, at age 27, Kasten became the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks. He held the position until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986.

During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten became the first and only NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87. With the help of future NBA Hall of Famer Dominique Wilkins, Kasten was able to build Atlanta into a perennial playoff contender, posting four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89, and set franchise attendance records. In the 1990s, Kasten guided Atlanta to a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances, including three 50-win seasons.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB. As president of the Braves, Kasten helped assemble talented teams that consistently competed for a world championship. Led by manager Bobby Cox, the Braves teams of that era were built around a deep pitching staff that featured Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, Steve Avery and John Smoltz. The cornerstone of the Braves' lineup was All-Star third baseman Chipper Jones. From 1991-2005, the Braves won 14 consecutive division titles, five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series. In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena. He was also involved in the design and construction of Turner Field. Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

On Jan. 24, 2014, Kasten was elected to the LA84 Foundation's board of directors. LA84 is the legacy of the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and primary funder of youth athletics in Southern California. Four days later, on Jan. 28, he was named 2013 Sports Executive of the Year by the Los Angeles Sports Council.

A native of Lakewood, New Jersey, Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law School. Kasten and his wife, Helen, have four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

MANAGING DIRECTOR

ERIC HOLOMAN

MANAGING DIRECTOR, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Eric Holoman is the Operating Partner of Magic Johnson Enterprises and oversees the company's day-to-day operations of its largest portfolio companies including serving as President and CEO of EquiTrust Life Insurance Company, a $19 billion life and annuity business, Managing Partner of JLC Infrastructure and Managing Director of the award-winning television network, ASPIRE. Eric is also a Managing Director of the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks where both basketball and business operations report to him. He also represents the Sparks on the WNBA Board of Governors.

Prior to joining MJE, Mr. Holoman held leadership positions in private banking with Bank of America and Wells Fargo. In June 2017, he retired from the Banc of California (Banc) board where he chaired the Community Development Committee and served on the Compensation, Executive and Governance Committees. He has been active in public service, having served on the Board of the LA City Employees' Retirement System including two terms as President while charging the Investments committee.

More recently, Mr. Holoman served as VP of the Board of the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power. Mr. Holoman joined the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation in 2012 and joined the Cedars Sinai Medical Center Board of Directors in 2017 where he's active on the finance and investments committees. He is also active in education with his participation on the Board of Leaders at USC Marshall School of Business.

PRESIDENT/COO

DANITA JOHNSON

PRESIDENT & CHIEF OPERATIONS OFFICER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Danita Johnson was named President and COO of the Los Angeles Sparks on Jan. 7, 2019, returning to the organization where she served as Senior Vice President from 2014-2017. Most recently, she served as Director of Business Operations for the Los Angeles Clippers in 2018.

Johnson brings an expertise in ticket sales, corporate parternships, community programs and digital media and marketing to the Sparks as one of the only high-level sports executives to serve in management roles in the WNBA, NBA and NBA G League.

In her prior role with the Sparks, Johnson helped launch the year-long #WeAreWomen campaign, which culminated in selling out all three levels of Staples Center, a historic attendance of 19,000. Overall, ticket sales increased by 50 percent during her tenure. In addition, Johnson implemented the Sparks annual marketing campaigns and launched a community busing program to transport underserved communities to Sparks games.

Johnson got her start in sports management as an intern with the Fayetville Patriots, the first NBA G League team, eventually being hired full-time with the organization. Johnson then helped launch multiple sports franchises including the Bakersfield Jam of the NBA G League and the Tulsa Shock of the WNBA when they moved from Detroit.

Johnson developed a reputation for being a top seller and went on to finish second in the entire WNBA in ticket sales with the Phoenix Mercury in 2008. In total, Johnson has 14 years of industry experience working for the Sparks, Clippers, Washington Mystics, Tulsa Shock, Phoenix Mercury and Phoenix Suns.

Outside the WNBA, Johnson has been involved with the Boys & Girls Club of America, Rotary International and Delta Sigma Theta. She has a passion for travel, cooking and mentoring young professionals. Johnson hails from Fayetville, North Carolina and attended Western Carolina University where she earned her degree in Sports Management.

LOS ANGELES SPARKS BASKETBALL

EXECUTIVE VP/GM

PENNY TOLER

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Penny Toler enters her 23rd season with the Los Angeles Sparks organization and her 20th season as general manager. Under her leadership as a player, executive, coach and general manager, the Sparks have won three WNBA championships (2001, 2002, 2016) and have qualified for the playoffs a WNBA record 18 times. Toler is the winningest and longest tenured general manager in WNBA history and was the first female athlete to have her jersey retired in Staples Center.

Toler began her Sparks tenure as a player during the WNBA's inaugural season in 1997, scoring the first basket in league history on June 21, 1997 against the New York Liberty. That year, she finished with a scoring average of 13.1 points per game. The following season, she shot an impressive 41.7 percent from three-point range – which ranked second in the WNBA – while finishing fifth in the league in assists at 4.8 per game. Toler finished her playing career after the 1999 WNBA season with career averages of 10.0 points, 4.0 assists and 2.8 rebounds per game in 88 WNBA games. She played a combined 13 years of professional basketball overseas and in the WNBA.

In November of 1999, Toler took over as general manager of the Sparks and immediately assembled a championship level team coached by Michael Cooper and led by Hall-of-Famer Lisa Leslie and DeLisha Milton-Jones. The team went on to win back-to-back titles in 2001 and 2002 during a string of eight straight playoff berths from 1999-2007. In 2006, Staples Center retired her No. 11 jersey in honor of her playing and management career. The Sparks 2001 title team made Toler the fastest person in professional sports, male or female, to go from being a player to general manager and win a championship in just two years.

In 2008, Toler drafted Candace Parker with the first overall pick in the WNBA Draft. Parker went on to win both MVP and Rookie of the Year during her rookie campaign. In 2012, the same year Toler was named Executive Vice President in addition to her general manager duties, she again showed her eye for talent by selecting future MVP Nneka Ogwumike with first overall pick, forming the dynamic duo that would go on to lead Los Angeles to the 2016 WNBA title and back-to-back finals appearances in 2016 and 2017.

Since drafting Ogwumike in 2012, the Sparks have not missed the playoffs to date. During the run, Toler became the only female in professional sports to have consecutively been a player, executive and head coach when she took over coaching duties during the 2014 season.

She went 6-6 (.500) during the regular season and led the Sparks to the Western Conference Semifinals. In 2015, Toler hired Brian Agler, the winningest coach in women's professional basketball history, and in 2016, she traded for current starting point guard Chelsea Gray, who would go on to play a crucial role in the Sparks 2016 title.

In addition to the Sparks, Toler is also a member of the USA Basketball Women's Competition Committee where she assisted in the selection of four gold medal winning teams: the 2002 World University Championship games, the 2004 Olympic team, the 2008 Olympic team and the 2018 Gold Medal Women Basketball National Team. Toler will also serve on the committee selecting the 2020 Women's Basketball Olympic team. In an effort to advance the women's game, she was also a strong advocate in implementing the 24- second shot clock and turning the two, 20-minutes halves into four, 10-minute quarters. Toler also sits on the WNBA Labor Relations Committee, the group that negotiated the new Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Toler graduated from Long Beach State University in 1989 where she set several school records including career assists (513) and career free-throw percentage (.795). A member of two Final Four teams, (1987 and 1988) under Coach Joan Bonvicini, she earned Kodak All-America honors, Pacific Coast Athletic Association Player of the Year and Co-Big West Player of the Year recognition in 1988 and 1989. She scored 2,193 points in three seasons of play at LBSU (sitting out the 1985-86 season after transferring from San Diego State). Toler's impressive collegiate career was recognized with her induction into the LBSU Hall of Fame in 1995 and a jersey retirement ceremony in 2007 by the Forty-Niner Athletics Department.

Outside of the WNBA, Toler combined her sense of community and business savvy and began her "Points from Penny" program in 1998. The goal of the program is to teach youth in the Los Angeles and Las Vegas areas the fundamentals of basketball, the importance of teamwork and the value of competition. The program was nominated for several awards during its tenure including: the American Express Entrepreneurial Spirit Award. Since that time, she has focused on bringing the same type of community-oriented programs to the Sparks front office.

Toler's hobbies include going to the movies, getting interior design tips from HGTV and working with underprivileged youth. She also sits on the Long Beach State Advisory Committee for the sports management program. Raised in Washington D.C. with three brothers and four sisters, Toler currently resides in Los Angeles.

HEAD COACH

DEREK FISHER

Derek Fisher was named the 12th head coach of the Los Angeles Sparks on Dec. 5, 2018. Fisher is a Los Angeles basketball legend, playing 18 seasons in the NBA and winning five championships with the Los Angeles Lakers.

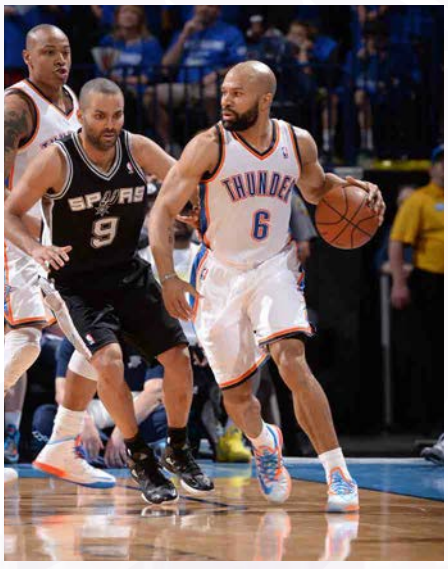
Fisher was drafted 24th overall by the Lakers in 1996, and played alongside Kobe Bryant and Shaquille O'neal en route to three consecutive titles from 2000-2002. He later added two more rings in 2009 and 2010 with Los Angeles. Fisher also played for the Golden State Warriors, Utah Jazz, Dallas Mavericks and Oklahoma City Thunder.

Fisher's accolades include holding the all-time NBA record for playoff game appearances (259). He's also known for hitting a buzzer-beater with 0.4 seconds left against the San Antonio Spurs in Game 5 of the 2004 Western Conference Semifinals as a member of the Lakers. In his time as a player, he served as president of the players' union from 2006-2013.

After finishing the 2013 season with the Thunder, Fisher transitioned to the sidelines, being named head coach of the New York Knicks on June 10, 2014. Fisher coached into the 2015-2016 season with New York, helping develop then-rookie Kristaps Porzingis.

Fisher is a native of Little Rock, Arkansas where he attended Parkview Arts and Science Magnet High School, lettering in basketball. He then attended the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, where he finished his four-year career second all-time in school history in points (1,393), assists (472) and steals (189). His senior year, he was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year.

In the spring of 2016, Fisher became a television analyst for TNT, NBA TV and later Spectrum SportsNet as an in-studio analyst for the Lakers.



COACHING STAFF

FRED WILLIAMS

Assistant Coach

Fred Williams was named assistant coach of the Los Angeles Sparks on Jan. 22, 2019 and brings over 35 years of collegiate and professional coaching experience. Most recently, Williams served as the Dallas Wings, previously Tulsa Shock, head coach from 2014-2018 where he coached WNBA All-Stars Skylar Diggins and Liz Cambage.

Williams launched his coaching career in 1983 as an assistant coach at USC where he coached standouts Cynthia Cooper, Pamela McGee, Cheryl Miller, Lisa Leslie and Tina Thompson. Williams helped lead the Trojans to back-to-back NCAA titles in 1983 and 1984 before serving as head coach head coach from 1995-1997.

In addition to his time in Dallas, Williams previously served as head coach of the Utah Starzz from 1999-2001. Williams then spent six seasons with the Atlanta Dream, winning three WNBA Eastern Conference Championships. Williams took over Atlanta's head coach in 2012 and led the Dream to the WNBA finals in 2013.

Williams played for Boise State men's basketball program from 1976-1979 and averaged 12.0 points and 5.8 assists in his final season. The All-Big Sky Conference point guard played briefly in the NBA for the Utah Jazz before transitioning to a role on the sidelines. He also served as an advance scout for the Washington Mystics, Utah Jazz, Seattle Supersonics and Sacramento Kings.

Off the court, Williams is an avid musician who produces jazz music under the name "Freddy Bass Williams." He has released two jazz albums titled "Game Time" and "My Gift to You." Williams is originally from Inglewood, California, but currently resides in Irving, Texas with his wife Bo and their five children.

LATRICIA TRAMMELL

Assistant Coach

Latricia Trammell was named assistant coach of the Los Angeles Sparks on Jan. 22, 2019. Trammell most recently served as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Stars in 2017 where she worked with the first overall pick Kelsey Plum.

Trammell also served as head coach at Oklahoma State University, producing an 85-10 record with the Stars. She led the team to back-to-back NAIA Division I women's basketball national championships in 2014 and 2015, which earned her National Coach of the Year honors in those two years.

After her two titles at OCU, Trammell transitioned to Division I basketball and became an assistant coach for Georgia State from 2015-2017 before transitioning to the WNBA. Trammell holds a 255-131 overall high school and college coaching record in her 24 years on the sidelines.

The Oklahoma native debuted as a head coach when she took over the job at Western State (Colo.) University. Trammell spent five seasons with the Mountaineers and built Western State to be a top contender in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. Trammell's team notched a 105-76 record and made five consecutive RMAC Shootout appearances, catapulting her to become the third winningest coach in program history.

Trammell formally served on the WBCA National Convention Advisory Board and on the voting committee for USA Today/ESPN D-II Top 25. The Seminole, Oklahoma native is also a frequent basketball clinician and was a former player for both Seminole State College and East Central Oklahoma.

JAMAL "DASH" LOVELL

Player Development Coach

The Los Angeles Sparks named Jamal "Dash" Lovell their player development assistant coach on March 4, 2019. Lovell is a professional basketball skills trainer bringing over 11 years of experience working with NBA, WNBA and NCAA athletes, including Candace Parker, Paul George and Dwyane Wade. Lovell is currently involved with high-profile training clinics in Los Angeles, New York and Miam. In total, Lovell has helped 22 players play NCAA Division I basketball and has worked with over 30 NBA and WNBA players. Lovell, who's known for his training brand DashLetics, believes that aggressiveness, balance and footwork are the key components for success on the court.

SPARKS HISTORY

LOS ANGELES SPARKS AT A GLANCE

Inaugural Season (1997):

- The Los Angeles Sparks was officially added to the WNBA Western Conference in 1997 under the late Los Angeles Lakers owner Jerry Buss.
- Played at the Great Western Forum (1997-2000).
- First game was against the New York Liberty on June 21, 1997.
- Penny Toler, former Sparks player & current Executive Vice President & General Manager, scored the league's first basket with a pull-up jumper 59 seconds into the game.

1999 - 2000:

- In 1999, the Sparks went 20-12 and made their first playoff appearance, beating the Sacramento Monarchs in the Western Conference Semifinals before falling to the Houston Comets 2-1 in the Western Conference Finals.
- Penny Toler retired in 1999 and became the general manager of the Sparks.
- Led by Hall-of-Famer Lisa Leslie, the Sparks went 28-4 in 2000, setting the record for most wins in a regular season, a record that stood until 2014.
- The Sparks again made the Western Conference Finals in 2000 and fell to the Comets 2-0.

2001 - 2002:

- In the 2000-01 offseason, the LA Sparks moved to Staples Center and hired former Los Angeles Laker legend Michael Cooper as their head coach.
- During the 2001 regular season, the Sparks posted another 28-4 record.
- In the 2001 playoffs, the Sparks finally eliminated the Comets in the conference semifinals and then beat the Charlotte Sting in the WNBA Finals to win their first WNBA title.
- In the 2002 season, Lisa Leslie became the first woman to dunk during a game.
- The Sparks once again dominated the season, going to the 2002 playoffs with a 25-7 record and beating the New York Liberty in the WNBA Finals to become back-to-back champions.

2003 - 2016:

- In 2003, the Sparks made their third consecutive Finals, but this time fell to the Detroit Shock.
- In 2006, Gemini Basketball LLC acquired the team and remained owners until 2011
- The Sparks made the playoffs every year until 2007, an eight-year streak of postseason berths.
- The Sparks drafted Candace Parker number one overall from Tennessee after she led the Lady Vols to back-to-back NCAA championships in 2007 and 2008.
- In the 2008 regular season, Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and WNBA MVP in the same year.
- Leslie retired in 2009, holding the league record for points (6,263) and rebounds (3,307).
- Williams Group Holdings took over ownership of the team in 2011 and remained owners until 2014.
- With the first pick in 2012, the Sparks drafted Rookie of the Year and future MVP Nneka Ogwumike.
- In 2014, Magic Johnson and the LA Dodgers Ownership Group bought the team and formed a new ownership group titled Sparks LA Sports, LLC.
- In 2015, the Sparks hired former Seattle Storm coach Brian Agler to be their next head coach.
- In 2016, the Sparks won the WNBA Finals, defeating the Minnesota Lynx 3-2. Ogwumike won the WNBA MVP Award and Parker was named Finals MVP.

2017 - Present:

- In 2017, the Sparks returned to the WNBA Finals, falling 3-2 to the Lynx.
- Alana Beard wins back-to-back Defensive Player of the Year awards in 2017 & 2018
- Sparks led the WNBA in attendance in 2017 & 2018 at Staples Center
- In 2018, Chelsea Gray earned her second straight All-Star selection, forming a "Big-Three" with Ogwumike and Parker.
- The Sparks drafted center Kalani Brown as the seventh overall pick frrom Baylor after she led the Bears to an NCAA championship in 2019

SPARKS TIMELINE

1997 - 2019

June 21, 1997: The Los Angeles Sparks and the New York Liberty tip-off the first WNBA game at the Great Western Forum in Los Angeles in front of a crowd of 14,284. Sparks Guard Penny Toler scores the league's first basket at 19:01

August 24, 1997: The Los Angeles Sparks and the New York Liberty tip-off the first WNBA game at the Great Western Forum in Los Angeles in front of a crowd of 14,284. Sparks Guard Penny Toler scores the league's first basket at 19:01.

June 19, 1998: Sparks center Lisa Leslie sets a WNBA record by pulling down 21 rebounds in the Sparks victory over the New York Liberty.

June 21, 1998: Sparks center Lisa Leslie notches her seventh straight double-double, setting a WNBA record.

August 19, 1998: The Sparks finish the season 12-18 in a year of individual improvement, as Lisa Leslie increases her scoring average from 15.9 to 19.6 and her rebounding rate from 9.5 to 10.2. Tamecka Dixon also sees a rise in her scoring from 11.9 to 16.2.

August 30, 1999: The Sparks complete a season of firsts, finishing with its first winning record and a franchise-best 20 wins. Los Angeles also wins its first playoff series, knocking off the Sacramento Monarchs before falling to the eventual WNBA Champion Houston Comets in the Western Conference Finals.

November 12, 1999: Penny Toler retires and becomes the first WNBA player in league history to go from player to front office executive, becoming General Manager of Player Personnel.

August 20, 2000: The Sparks win a franchise-record 28 games, including two 12-game win streaks. After sweeping Phoenix in the first round of the playoffs, though, they fall once again in the Western Conference Finals to the eventual WNBA Champion Houston Comets.

Sept. 18, 2012: Already the WNBA's all-time leading scorer, Tina Thompson (Seattle) became the first player in the history of the league to surpass 7,000 career points with her jump shot at the 9:03 mark of the second quarter of the Storm's victory over visiting Chicago at KeyArena. The milestone capped a season in which Thompson also became the first WNBA player to top 15,000 minutes played and 2,450 field goals made.

Aug. 28, 2012: A put-back basket against San Antonio by Minnesota Lynx center McWilliams-Franklin, moved the 14-year veteran and six-time All-Star into first place on the WNBA's career list for offensive rebounds, surpassing the 1,049 of Yolanda Griffith.

Sept. 22, 2012: Temeka Johnson of the Tulsa Shock finished the regular season with the league's best single-season mark in history for three-point FG percentage (.531, 34 of 64). On the same day, Ticha Penicheiro of the Chicago Sky plays the final game of her career and, with two assists, increases her WNBA career record to 2,599.

Sept. 26, 2012: The WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2013 WNBA Draft) was held for the first time at ESPN's studios in Bristol, Conn., live during the 6 p.m. ET edition of SportsCenter. The Phoenix Mercury ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Chicago Sky, Tulsa Shock, and Washington Mystics.

Oct. 21, 2012: Indiana defeated the defending champion Minnesota Lynx 3-games-to-1, giving the Fever its first WNBA championship in franchise history. Following Game 4, an 87-78 home win at Indianapolis' Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Indiana forward Tamika Catchings was named MVP of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile. Catchings, a three-time Olympic gold medalist and the league's 2011 MVP, averaged 22.3 points, six rebounds, and two steals during the Finals.

Dec. 13, 2012: Following the league's Board of Governor's Meeting, the WNBA announces it will implement new rules regarding flopping and defensive three-seconds, while also extending the three-point line from 20 feet, 6 1/4 inches to 22 feet, 1 3/4 inches, consistent with the distance inherent in all FIBA competitions. The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.

March 28, 2013: The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2 each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.

March 28, 2013: On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" -- the player silhouette within the logo -- that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.

April 15, 2013: For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2. One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the "3 to See" -- Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Skylar Diggins of Notre Dame. The Phoenix Mercury selected Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then took Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claimed Diggins third.

May 27, 2013: While the WNBA's 17th season officially tipped off on May 24, it was a May 27 Memorial Day TV doubleheader on ESPN2 that introduced the "3 to See" – Phoenix center Brittney Griner, Chicago guard/forward Elena Delle Donne, and Tulsa guard Skylar Diggins – to WNBA fans. Griner, Delle Donne, and Diggins, the first, second, and third overall draft picks in the 2013 Draft, were the featured players as Tulsa first hosted the Washington Mystics and Phoenix then hosted Chicago.

May 27, 2013: Brittney Griner, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2013 Draft, registered two dunks in her very first game, becoming the first WNBA player ever to dunk multiple times in the same game.

June 8, 2013: The WNBA becomes the first U.S. professional basketball league to implement "Ref Cam" as part of a game telecast. A wireless, HD, mini point-of-view camera positioned at eye-level on game official Lamont Simpson. "Ref Cam" allowed viewers to virtually be on the court when Indiana hosted Phoenix during a live ABC broadcast.

July 6, 2013: Mike Thibault moved ahead of Van Chancellor to become the head coach with the most regular-season victories in WNBA history. Thibault reached the milestone with the Washington Mystics' 62-59 win over the Seattle Storm. The win was Thibault's 212th regular-season victory as a WNBA head coach.

July 27, 2013: The Los Angeles Sparks' Candace Parker was crowned MVP of the 2013 Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game after setting an All-Star Game record with 23 points, topping the mark of 22 set by Swin Cash in 2009. Parker shot 10-for-13 from the field and chipped in 11 rebounds. Leading into the All-Star Game, the Chicago Sky's Elena Delle Donne became the first rookie ever to lead all vote-getters for the event.

August 18, 2013: Chicago's Sylvia Fowles became the first player in league history to post two 20-20 games in the same season. Fowles, who scored 20 points and added 21 rebounds vs. Connecticut on this date, had previously posted 24 points and 22 rebounds vs. Connecticut on May 31.

September 8, 2013: Second-year guard Riquna Williams sets a WNBA single-game scoring record with 51 points in the Tulsa Shock's win at San Antonio. The 51-point effort surpassed the previous mark of 47 set by Phoenix's Diana Taurasi in 2006 and Seattle's Lauren Jackson in 2007.

September 15, 2013: Guard Katie Smith, a veteran of 15 WNBA seasons and a seven-time WNBA All-Star, finishes her illustrious career ranked No. 1 in league history in three-point shots made (906); second in total points (6,452, trailing only Tina Thompson) and minutes played (15,725); fourth in free throws made (1,440); and fifth in field goals made (2,053).

September 22, 2013: Forward Tina Thompson, the only player to play in each of the WNBA's first 17 seasons, plays her final game as Seattle is eliminated from the playoffs by Minnesota in the Western Conference Semifinals. The nine-time WNBA All-Star selection ended her career ranked as the league's all-time leader in points (7,488), field goals made (2,630), and minutes played (16,088); second in free throws made (1,480) and total rebounds (3,070); and fourth in three-point field goals made (748).

October 10, 2013: After advancing to the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive season, the Western Conference champion Minnesota Lynx toppled the Atlanta Dream 3-games-to-0, giving Minnesota its second WNBA title in franchise history and its second crown in a three-year span. Following an 86-77 Game 3 victory at Gwinnett Arena in suburban Atlanta, Lynx forward Maya Moore, the runner-up for the regular-season MVP award, was named the MVP of the Finals. The Georgia native averaged 20 points, six rebounds, and over two assists during the Finals series.

December 10, 2013: The 13th annual WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm) was conducted in a televised event live on ESPN during SportsCenter for the second straight year. The Connecticut Sun, which had 442 chances out of 1,000 to receive the first overall selection, the most of any of the four teams in the lottery mix, ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Tulsa Shock, San Antonio Silver Stars, and New York Liberty.

January 14, 2014: The WNBA's San Antonio franchise officially changes its nickname from Silver Stars to Stars.

February 5, 2014: The WNBA and NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the purchase of the Los Angeles Sparks by an investment group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Mark R. Walter. The investment group includes Dodger co-owners Todd L. Boehly, Robert L. Patton, and Stan Kasten.

March 7, 2014: The Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) entered into a new eight-year collective bargaining agreement, commencing with the 2014 season and continuing through 2021. The new collective bargaining agreement includes an additional 12th roster spot, salary cap increases and reduced revenue sharing thresholds, making it more likely that the players will share in league revenue growth. In addition, a new "Time Off Bonus" " (up to $50,000 per team) can be earned by a player who limits the amount of time she will play professional basketball (and/or play for a national team) during the off-season.

April 14, 2014: The 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm is televised live in primetime by ESPN2 from the floor of the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Chiney Ogwumike of Stanford University is selected No. 1 overall by the Connecticut Sun and, in the process, makes history. Ogwumike and her older sister, Nneka – the No. 1 overall pick in the 2012 Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks – join NFL stars Peyton and Eli Manning as the only siblings selected with the top pick in a North American professional sports league draft. The Tulsa Shock made Baylor University's Odyssey Sims the No. 2 overall pick and the San Antonio Stars claim Notre Dame's Kayla McBride third.

July 19, 2014: Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star 2014 takes place at US Airways Center, marking the second time the All-Star event takes place in Phoenix. The first WNBA All-Star game to go into overtime is won by the East, 125-124, after the Indiana Fever's Tamika Catchings grabs a defensive rebound and dribbles the length of the floor to score the game-winning layup with 6.9 seconds to play in OT. Atlanta Dream guard Shoni Schimmel, who had been voted into the game as a starter by fans, lives up to her nickname, "Showtime Shoni," and becomes the first rookie ever to earn the All-Star game MVP award. Schimmel set All-Star records for points (29), made field goals (11), and made three-point field goals (7). Like Schimmel, Minnesota's Maya Moore (24 points) and Tulsa's Skylar Diggins (27 points) also surpassed the previous record for points in an All-Star game (23 by Los Angeles' Candace Parker in 2013).

Aug. 5, 2014: The NBA's San Antonio Spurs announce they are hiring WNBA all-star guard Becky Hammon as an assistant coach under head coach Gregg Popovich. Hammon, then of the WNBA's San Antonio Stars and in the midst of her 16th season as a WNBA player, becomes the first full-time, paid female assistant coach in NBA history.

Sept. 12, 2014: In the WNBA Finals, the Phoenix Mercury sweeps the Chicago Sky, 3-0, to win its third championship in franchise history. After taking the first two games of the best-of-five series at home by 21 and 29 points, respectively, the Mercury is led by guard Diana Taurasi, who scores 14 of her 24 points in the fourth quarter, and by forward Candice Dupree (24 points), as Phoenix edges host Chicago, 87-82, in Game 3. Tarausi, who is subsequently named Finals MVP for the second time in her career, breaks an 82-82 tie with an old-fashioned three-point play.

April 16, 2015: For the second straight year, the WNBA Draft presented by State Farm® is held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. With the No. 1 overall pick, the Seattle Storm makes Notre Dame guard and consensus All-American Jewell Loyd the first Fighting Irish player ever chosen with the top selection. The Tulsa Shock choose Sweden native Amanda Zahui B. of the University of Minnesota with the second overall selection, and the Storm uses its second pick in the top three on the University of Connecticut's Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis. Loyd and Zahui B., each of whom leave college with eligibility remaining, enter the draft by virtue of turning 22 years of age during the 2015 calendar year.

June 24, 2015: Chicago's Elena Delle Donne scores a career-high 45 points in a win over Atlanta. Coupled with her 40-point effort at Tulsa on June 6, she becomes only the fourth player in league history with two 40-point games in the same season. Delle Donne would go on to be named the 2015 WNBA MVP presented by Samsung.

July 3, 2015: Becky Hammon, a former WNBA All-Star and current NBA assistant coach with the San Antonio Spurs, becomes the first female head coach in the NBA's Las Vegas Summer League when the Spurs announce she will guide their team. Seventeen days later, on July 20, Hammon leads the Spurs to the Summer League title, becoming the first female coach to win a Summer League title.

July 20, 2015: Tulsa Shock majority owner Bill Cameron announces plans to relocate the WNBA team to the Dallas-Fort Worth area, the fourth-largest metropolitan area in the U.S. Cameron asks the WNBA to submit the request to the Board of Governors for approval.

July 21, 2015: Atlanta Dream forward/guard Angel McCoughtry becomes the second-fastest player in WNBA history to reach the 4,000-point milestone, accomplishing the feat in her 206th game (only Diana Taurasi reached the plateau in fewer games – 197).

July 23, 2015: The WNBA Board of Governors unanimously approves the relocation of the Tulsa Shock to the Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area. The team then finished the season in Tulsa, reaching the playoffs for the first time since relocating from Detroit prior to the 2010 season.

July 25, 2015: In a game featuring 10 first-time All-Stars, the Western Conference defeats the Eastern Conference, 117-112, in the Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Minnesota Lynx forward Maya Moore is named MVP, becoming just the second player (after Lisa Leslie) to win all three of All-Star Game MVP, WNBA MVP presented by Samsung (2014) and WNBA Finals MVP presented by Boost Mobile (2013). Moore scores an All-Star Game-record 30 points, surpassing the mark of 29 set by Atlanta's Shoni Schimmel in 2014). Indiana Fever forward Tamika Catchings – who enters the game as the career All-Star leader in minutes, made field goals, total rebounds and defensive rebounds – tallies eight points and moves ahead of Leslie as the all-time scoring leader in All-Star history. Catchings also moves into the top spot in WNBA AllStar Game history for the most selections (10) and most games played (9). Seattle guard Sue Bird, selected for the ninth time, plays in her eighth All-Star Game and moves into sole possession of second place in that category.

July 28, 2015: Indiana's Tamika Catchings passes Diana Taurasi (6,722) for second place on the WNBA's all-time regular-season points list.
